TO THE R E A D E R

*I*n the First Edition of the General Catalogue, I comprehended the Titles of all Books Printed in England from the Dreadful Fire in 1666. to the end of Trinity Term 1672. and have now with them, inserted under their proper Heads the several Catalogues since Published, with very large Additions; especially under the Heads of Law, Navigation, Musick, School-Books, &c.

I have, to the best of my Judgment, given the just reputed Price to each Book, which I have not mentioned wholly to guide the Buyer, in regard of the various Fortune that Books are subject to, both in regard to Time, Plenty, Scarcity, &c.

I have mentioned the Authors Names under some Heads which are most large, but thought it not much material with them to write the Titles again of such Books as are intermixt, where the Authors Names are not known or printed to their Books.

As to the promised General Catalogue of Latin Books Printed beyond the Seas since 1666. I have made a considerable progress in it, but the Discouragements I met with by the Charge of Advertisements, and gratifying some persons I was obliged to in Foreign parts, put a stop to what I aim'd at, the Charge being too great, for the profit to be expected by such a Design.

What of these Books are desired bound, 'tis convenient the Book-binder should leave Copies to passe on Additional Term-Catalogues as they are Published.

REFADERTO THE

At the Fifth Edition of the General Catalogue, I comprehended the Titles of all Books Printed in England from the Decadful Five in 1666. to the end of Trinity Term 1673. and have now forth them inserted under their proper Heads the several Catalogues since Published, with very large Additions: especially under the Head of Law, Navigation, Music, School-Books, &c. I have to the best of my Judgment, given the just reputed Price to each Book, which I have not mentioned wholly to guide the Buyer, in regard of the various Fortune that Books are subject to, both in regard to Time, Place, Scarcity, &c. I have mentioned the Authors Names under some Heads which are most large, but thought it not much material with them to write the Titles again of such Books as are intermixed with the Authors Names and not known or printed to their Books. As to the printed General Catalogue of Latin Books Printed before and the Year 1666. I have made a considerable progress in it, but the Discommodities met with by the Charge of advertisements, and giving some persons I was obliged to in Foreign parts, put a stop to what I aimed at, the Charge being too great for the profit to be expected by such a Design.

Robert Clavel
 Novemb. 1674.
 What this Book is distributed, it is against the Book-Indemnity Act of 1673.
 It is not on a full and true Catalogue as the Year 1674.
